PONFERRADA'S TEMPLAR CASTLE

This castle is in Ponferrada in Leon's province. It is on top of a hill and between two rivers. It was built in 10th century but it was reconstructed a few times a long history. It is made of stone, wood and slate. It has got shaped of irregular polygon. The principal front door has got two towers and it has got courtyard and some towers inside: Malveiras tower that it was had three floors, or Cabrera's tower where it was dungeons. I like this castle because we can
